General Safety and Security

Safety at the Hawai'i Main Campus

This report is provided in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act ("Clery Act"), as amended. It provides students and employees of University of Phoenix ("University" or "UOPX") with information on the University's security arrangements; safety and security policies and procedures; programs that provide education on such things as alcohol and drug abuse, awareness of various kinds of sex offenses, and the prevention of crime generally; and procedures the University will take to notify the campus community in the event of an emergency. Its purpose is to provide students and employees with information that will help them make informed decisions relating to their own safety and the safety of others. A well-informed campus community helps create a safety-conscious public.

Education requires a safe environment for success. University of Phoenix is strongly committed to crime prevention and the safety of our members. Your cooperation is essential to minimize criminal activity and create a safer community for all.

For a complete compilation of UOPX campus safety related policies, review the Campus Safety Policies \(https://www.phoenix.edu/content/dam/edu/about/doc/campus-safety-policies.pdf\).

Note: The Hawai'i Main Campus does not have on-campus student housing facilities; therefore, this report does not include information regarding missing student notification policies or fire safety reports and statistics.

Policy for Preparing the Annual Security Report

The University's Clery Compliance Officer in conjunction with Resolution Services and Corporate Security and in cooperation with local law enforcement authorities prepared this report which includes information provided by them as well as by the University's Campus Security Authorities, Campus Safety Coordinators, and various other elements of the University. The Clery Compliance Officer collects applicable policies between January and August each year from various areas within the University to combine into the policy statements required under the Clery Act. The crime statistics included herein are reported via telephone, email, in-person conversation, the Ethics Helpline, or by submission of an internal incident report form, and gathered by UOPX Corporate Security, contracted security professionals, local law enforcement, identified Campus Security Authorities and Campus Safety Coordinators, Resolution Services (to include student conduct), the Title IX Coordinator, Human Resources, and through the office of Ethics, Compliance, and Data Privacy. Each year an e-mail notification is made to all employees and enrolled students that provides the website link to access this report. Prospective students and employees are also notified of the report's availability. Hard copies of the report may also be obtained at no cost by contacting any UOPX official or Jade Shiroma, Manager Campus Operations, 949 Kamokila Blvd., Kapolei, HI 96707, (808) 674-5683 or Jade.Shiroma@phoenix.edu.

The University is committed to taking the actions necessary to provide a safe and secure working/learning environment for all students and employees. As a member of the campus community, you can feel safe and comfortable knowing that security procedures are in place that represent best practices in the field and are constantly tested and re-evaluated for their effectiveness.

Campus Security Personnel & Relationship with Local Law Enforcement

UOPX has a centralized campus security department located at the Phoenix Main Campus that establishes policy, protection strategies, and response strategies. There is no extended jurisdiction beyond the on-campus and public property boundaries of the Hawai'i Main Campus (refer to the University's Clery Act geography). UOPX does not have an on-site police department. UOPX security personnel do not have the authority to make law enforcement arrests.

UOPX currently does not have any formal Memoranda of Understanding (MOU) between its local campuses and any law enforcement agencies (local or state). The Hawai'i Main Campus does not have a working relationship with any state law enforcement agencies; however, it works to maintain a close working relationship with the Honolulu Police Department by reporting all incidents that occur on or around campus, assisting with investigations unrelated to UOPX, including evidence collection and sharing intelligence when disruptive and unlawful activities occur in the general vicinity of the Hawai'i Main Campus.

Campus Security Authorities

The University has designated certain officials to serve as Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) and/or Campus Safety Coordinators. All Campus Safety Coordinators are CSAs and located at every teaching location. Reports of criminal activity can be made to any of these officials. They, in turn, will ensure that the crimes are reported for collection as part of the University's annual report of crime statistics. The CSAs at and/or overseeing the Hawai'i Main Campus to whom UOPX prefers that crimes be reported are listed below.

- Security Operations Center (SOC) at (866) 992-3301 or SOC@phoenix.edu
- Jade Shiroma, Manager Campus Operations, at (808) 674-5683 or Jade.Shiroma@phoenix.edu

For a complete list of designated Campus Safety Coordinators visit https://www.phoenix.edu/about_us/campus-safety/campus-safety-contact-list.html. For a complete list of CSAs refer to the Safety and Security Policies section in the University's master Campus Safety Policies at <https://www.phoenix.edu/content/dam/edu/about/doc/campus-safety-policies.pdf>.

Reporting a Crime or Emergency

UOPX encourages accurate and prompt reporting of all criminal actions, emergencies, or other incidents occurring on-campus, on other property owned by the University, or on nearby public property to the campus security department and the appropriate police agencies, when the victim of a crime elects to, or is unable to, make such a report.

- If a crime is in progress or there is some other situation posing imminent danger, local law enforcement can be reached by dialing 9-1-1.
- All crimes occurring on or near UOPX property should be reported immediately to the Security Operations Center (SOC) or one of the CSAs listed above. To contact the SOC call (866) 992-3301, use the chat feature on the Phoenix Safe app, or email SOC@phoenix.edu. The SOC is available 24/7/365.

- Staff are also encouraged to complete an Online Incident Report Form
- Students, faculty, and staff are all encouraged to utilize the Phoenix Safe app
 - Phoenix Safe is a free mobile safety application, available for download in the Google Play and Apple Store marketplaces, which offers interactive life safety resources such as live chat with the SOC and push notifications of campus alerts
- Students, faculty, staff, and visitors should also report situations to one of the CSAs identified above. Once reported, the individual may also be encouraged to report the situation to the appropriate police agency. If requested, a UOPX staff member will assist in making the report to police.
 - You may request confidentiality or anonymity when making crime reports to law enforcement. The anonymous tip line for Kapolei, HI is (808) 955-8300.
- Anonymous incident reports can also be made by contacting the Ethics Helpline at (888) 310-9569 or by visiting the Ethics Helpline at <http://www.UOPXhelpline.com>.

Confidential Reporting

UOPX will protect the confidentiality of victims. Only those with a need to know the identity for purposes of investigating the crime, assisting the victim, or disciplining the perpetrator will know the victim's identity.

Pursuant to the University's Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Nondiscrimination Policy, when an employee becomes aware of alleged misconduct under that policy (including, but not limited to, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking), the employee is responsible for reporting that information, including the identities of the parties, if known, to the Title IX Coordinator at (602) 557-1823 or TIXC@phoenix.edu. Victims or witnesses can report crimes of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking on a voluntary and confidential basis by contacting the Ethics Helpline at (888) 310-9569 or <http://www.UOPXhelpline.com>.

A victim of other types of crimes (e.g., aggravated assault, burglary, etc.) who does not want to pursue action within the University's disciplinary system, or the criminal justice system, is encouraged to make a confidential report through the Ethics Helpline at (888) 310-9569 or <http://www.UOPXhelpline.com>. Upon the victim's request, a report of the details of the incident can be filed with the University without revealing the victim's identity. Such a confidential report complies with the victim's wishes, but still helps the University take appropriate steps to ensure the future safety of the victim and others. With such information, the University can keep an accurate record of the number of incidents involving members of the campus community, determine where a pattern of crime may be developing, and alert the community to any potential danger. These confidential reports are counted and disclosed in the annual crime statistics for the University.

UOPX operates educational training facilities known as Counseling Skills Centers at the Phoenix Main Campus (in-person services) and Southern California Campus Main - Ontario (virtual telehealth services). These Counseling Skills Centers model mental health clinics and offer complimentary services to members of the University and local community. Centers are staffed by counseling graduate students who work under the direct supervision of licensed, experienced professionals. For more information, or to contact a Counseling Skills Center near you, please visit <http://www.phoenix.edu/students/counseling-skills-centers.html>. To make an in-person appointment at the Phoenix Main Campus please call (602) 557-2217. To make a virtual telehealth appointment at the Southern California Campus - Ontario, please call (909) 472-3798.

Crime victims seeking professional counseling through the Counseling Skills Centers will have their information kept in confidence. Even if a victim gives the professional counselor permission to release their identity, the counselor may only report the occurrence of the event itself to be included in the annual crime statistics, unless otherwise required by law.

UOPX does not have pastoral counselors, and it does not have policies or procedures that encourage its professional counselors, if and when they deem it appropriate, to inform the person they are counseling to report crimes on a voluntary, confidential basis for inclusion in the annual report of crime statistics.

Security of and Access to Campus Facilities

The Hawai'i Main Campus, like all UOPX locations, does not have any on-campus student housing facilities (e.g., residence halls) and is usually accessible to the public during the normal business hours posted at the site; however, classrooms and office buildings are generally locked when not in use. Only faculty and staff members have access to secured administrative and institutional facilities. This restricted access is obtained using an electronic access control badging system or security locks. In addition to students signing in at the Student Resource Center (SRC) or front desk area, non-employees must be escorted by an employee throughout their visit to any restricted access areas. Certain areas at each local campus (e.g., Faculty Resource Center and IT Support rooms) have secured access for all non-authorized personnel.

Students, faculty, and staff are asked to be alert and to not circumvent practices and procedures that are meant to preserve their safety and that of others:

- Do not prop doors open or allow strangers into campus buildings that have been secured.
- Do not lend keys or access cards to anyone, and do not leave them unattended.
- Do not give access codes to anyone who does not belong to the campus community.

Keys to the offices, resource centers, laboratories, and classrooms at the Hawai'i Main Campus will be issued to employees only as needed and after receiving the proper authorization. Each department supervisor is responsible for assuring their area is secured and locked.

Employee and student identification cards may be used to verify the identity of persons suspected to be in campus facilities without permission.

Safety and Access to the Hawai'i Main Campus

The security and access features for the Hawai'i Main Campus include:

- Access control to/within facilities
- Security cameras
- Duress button
- On-site duress notification
- Window blinds
- "No Weapons" signage
- On-site safety escort services, upon request
- Regular patrols of campus grounds conducted by security personnel

Security Considerations in the Maintenance of Facilities

A CSA and/or Campus Safety Coordinator ensures campus maintenance issues affecting safety or potentially enabling criminal activity are resolved. A CSA and/or Campus Safety Coordinator must notify the appropriate facilities manager and request prompt attention to the problem.

University facilities management personnel or its agents maintain and repair campus facilities. This includes repairs to defective doors and locking mechanisms. Exterior lighting is another important part of our commitment to campus safety. CSAs and/or Campus Safety Coordinators (and contracted security guards, where applicable) regularly check to ensure landscaping is not overgrown, pathways are well lit, and egress lighting is working in hallways and stairwells. Safety and security equipment such as alarms, video surveillance, and emergency call buttons are audited regularly by the Security Operations Center (SOC) to ensure that the equipment is functioning. We ask that you promptly report any problems or hazards you notice to a CSA, Campus Safety Coordinator, or the SOC.

Educational Programs Related to Security Awareness and Prevention of Criminal Activity

UOPX seeks to enhance the security of its campus and the members of the campus community by periodically presenting educational programs to inform students and employees about campus security procedures and practices, to encourage students and employees to be responsible for their own security and the security of others, and to inform them about the prevention of crimes. These programs are discussed below.

The Hawai'i Main Campus sponsors up to four safety events annually, which are conducted during a time and at a location (i.e., classroom or virtual platform) to maximize participation from all students, faculty, and staff. A common theme of our safety events is developing campus members' awareness of their responsibility for their own safety and the safety of others while also focusing on increasing security alertness.

The four safety events include 1) training describing the differences between a timely warning notification, an emergency mass notification, and a campus alert, 2) training on sexual assault awareness and prevention, 3) training designed to help recognize mental health issues and respond appropriately, and 4) training on recognizing the signs of relationship abuse. Please contact your Campus Safety Coordinator for information on where and when these educational events will occur.

In addition to coordinating these safety events, the Campus Safety Coordinator makes a good-faith effort to inform new and existing personnel of security reporting procedures. Staff members who have regular interaction with the campus community are informed that students may approach them with crime-related incidents that need to be reported quickly to a CSA and/or Campus Safety Coordinator.

New employees are also required to complete the "Campus Safety: Awareness, Prevention, and Action" online course within 30 days of employment. In this online course, employees learn key information on environmental, medical, and criminal risks and about the role of CSAs and the necessity to report crimes.

Safety Awareness and Crime Prevention

Part of crime prevention is being alert to and aware of your immediate environment. Here are some important ways you can help keep yourself – and the Hawai'i Main Campus – more safe and secure:

- Roll up windows and lock your car
- Always take and keep your car keys with you
- At night, travel in well-lit areas and in pairs, if possible; avoid short cuts and deserted areas
- Walk with a sense of purpose – show you are calm, aware, confident, and know where you are going
- Scan the area, around and inside your car, before entering
- Do not leave valuable items visible inside your car, including personal items and school related materials such as textbooks
- Do not park in isolated or poorly lit areas
- Leave valuable items at home
- Do not leave your personal property unattended
- Do not carry more cash than necessary
- Keep your purse, backpack, or briefcase close to your body
- Mark personal items that you bring on campus, including textbooks, laptops, and calculators with your name or some other traceable identification
- Never bring any kind of weapon onto UOPX property

UOPX routinely provides safety tips (like the ones listed above) to the campus community (students, faculty, and staff) annually via email, MyPhoenix, intranet, and/or postings to the UOPX website but does not offer any other specific crime prevention training programs.

Monitoring Off Campus Locations of Recognized Student Organizations

UOPX does not have any officially recognized student organizations with off campus (i.e., noncampus) locations and therefore does not monitor or record criminal conduct occurring at such locations.

Disclosure of the Outcome of a Crime of Violence or Non-Forcible Sex Offense

Upon written request, the University will disclose to the alleged victim of a crime of violence (as that term is defined in section 16 of title 18, United States Code), or a non-forcible sex offense, the report on the results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the University against a student who is the alleged perpetrator of such crime or offense. If the alleged victim is deceased as a result of such crime or offense, the next of kin of such victim shall be treated as the alleged victim for purposes of the paragraph.

The previous paragraph does not apply to victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking because under the Violence Against Women Act both the accused and accuser in these cases are given the results without the need to make a written request.

Timely Warnings, Emergency Response, and Campus Alerts

Timely Warnings

In the event of any Clery Act crime occurring within the Clery Act geography of the Hawai'i Main Campus which may pose a serious or ongoing threat to the campus community, the Clery Compliance Officer, with assistance from Corporate Security, the Security Operations Center (SOC), and designated Campus Safety Coordinator(s) may issue a campus-wide "timely warning." The purpose of a Timely Warning is to notify the campus community of an incident and to provide information that may enable community members to better protect themselves from similar incidents. An example that may merit a warning due to presenting a continuing threat includes a rash of motor vehicle thefts on-campus. Warnings will be communicated to students and employees via one or more of the methods discussed later in this section. Updates to the warnings will be provided as appropriate.

Anyone with information warranting a timely warning should immediately report the circumstances to:

- Security Operations Center (SOC), (866) 992-3301
- Jade Shiroma, Manager Campus Operations, (808) 674-5683
- Jessica Flores, Clery Compliance Officer, (602) 412-9253

In the event of an emergency, call 9-1-1 first.

UOPX has communicated with local law enforcement asking them to notify the University if it receives reports or information warranting a timely warning.

Emergency Response

The University's emergency response is designed to ensure there is a timely and effective response in the event of a significant emergency or dangerous situation occurring on campus involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of members of the campus community. Such situations include, but are not limited to fire/smoke/explosion, severe weather, hazardous material, earthquake/power outage, active shooter, disease outbreaks, bomb threats, etc. UOPX has communicated with local police requesting their cooperation in informing the University about situations reported to them that may warrant an emergency response to our campus community.

Students, employees, and visitors are encouraged to notify the Security Operations Center (SOC) at (866) 992-3301 or SOC@phoenix.edu of any emergency or potentially dangerous situation.

The Emergency Mass Notification (EMN) process includes emergency escalation procedures, mass notifications, and supporting systems. In an emergency, dangerous, or otherwise high-risk situation, the SOC will use this process without delay and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content of the notification and initiate the notification to students, faculty, and staff unless issuing the notification system will, in the professional judgment of the responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

The University has the flexibility to alert only a segment of the campus community that may be at risk. When there is at least the potential that a very large segment of the campus community would be affected by a situation, or when a situation threatens the operation of the campus as a whole, the entire campus community will be notified. If, however, the risk is limited to a small area of the campus community, only those students, faculty, and staff associated with such an area will be notified (the SOC will continue assessment of the situation and additional segments of the campus community may be notified if the situation warrants such action). Further, depending on the segments of the campus the notification will target, the content of the notification may differ. When appropriate, the content of the notification will be determined in consultation with local authorities. As appropriate, the notification may give guidance as to whether its recipients should shelter in place or evacuate their location.

UOPX Corporate Security will direct the issuance of emergency notifications, which will be accomplished using one or more of the methods discussed later in this section, depending on the nature of the threat and the segment of the campus community being threatened.

Emergency notifications are issued when the SOC confirms with the Corporate Security department, local campus director, designated Campus Safety Coordinator, local authorities, or verified media source that there is a significant emergency or a dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of members of the campus community. The process used to confirm the existence of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involves multiple layers of information gathering and multiple people and departments. While confirmation does not necessarily mean all pertinent details are known or available, confirmation does include when internal individuals (i.e., local campus director and/or Campus Safety Coordinator), internal departments (i.e., Corporate Security and SOC), and external sources (i.e., local authorities and/or verified media sources) have verified a legitimate emergency or dangerous situation exists. The processes for confirming such situations are coordinated by Corporate Security, the SOC, and, if necessary, the Crisis Management Team¹ in-office, over the phone, and via email. Once confirmed, the SOC is responsible for initiating the emergency response and for marshaling the appropriate local emergency response authorities for assistance.

Note: The Campus & Academic Director for the Hawai'i Main Campus is Summer Van Pelt, who can be reached at (808) 524-9871 or Summer.VanPelt@phoenix.edu.

The University has assigned responsibility of managing the EMN policy and procedures to Corporate Security and the Clery Compliance Officer. The review of emergency events and the related issuance of EMNs is the responsibility of the SOC in partnership with the University's Crisis Management Team. UOPX uses the emergency notification system, AppArmor, to provide alerts via email, text message, phone call, or push notification through the Phoenix Safe app.

Phoenix Safe is an emergency notification service and comprehensive safety application available to students, faculty, and staff and can be downloaded for free from the Google Play and Apple Store marketplaces. Users can view a scrolling news feed, review resources such as the Emergency Response Guide, easily report a tip to the SOC, access campus maps, and live chat with the SOC among other safety options. Use of the Phoenix Safe app is optional. Students, faculty, and staff with accurate contact information on file will receive emergency notifications regardless of whether they chose to use the app as an additional tool.

The process to initiate the EMN system (AppArmor) is triggered as soon as the SOC receives notice of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students, faculty, and/or staff. Upon notification, the SOC will immediately perform the following functions:

- Use pre-templated messaging and EMN standard operating procedures to develop messaging content that can be used if an EMN is to be issued
- Recommend which campus community segments should receive notifications
- Initiate a notice to be sent out to the impacted campus community by the University's EMN system (AppArmor) based on the direction of Corporate Security, the Crisis Management Team, or SOC protocols
- Depending on the severity of the situation, notify the Crisis Management Team to convene and review the issue considering factors described in the next paragraph below

The SOC, in conjunction with the UOPX Crisis Management Team, is responsible for reviewing issues on a case-by-case basis, considering factors such as:

- The nature of the situation
- The continuing danger to the campus community
- The content of the notification
- The possible risk of compromising law enforcement efforts
- Those incidents that, in the judgment of the SOC, Corporate Security, or Crisis Management Team, warrant an EMN

If deemed necessary, at the direction of Corporate Security or the Crisis Management Team, the SOC will notify local law enforcement of the emergency if they are not already aware of it and, when appropriate, the UOPX Communications & Public Relations Department may relay further status information to local media outlets to ensure the larger community outside the campus will be aware of the emergency.

Reporting Emergencies

Individuals should immediately call emergency 9-1-1 for police assistance if they believe the situation warrants it. In addition to 9-1-1 involvement, incidents that may warrant contacting a CSA, Campus Safety Coordinator, or SOC are those posing a serious or continuous health or safety threat to the campus community such as dangerous or otherwise high-risk situations at the Hawai'i Main Campus. Students, faculty, staff, and visitors are encouraged to report such situations in the following ways:

- Contact the SOC directly at (866) 992-3301, SOC@phoenix.edu, or by initiating emergency/panic alarms available throughout the Hawai'i Main Campus
- Students should contact a CSA and/or Campus Safety Coordinator

- For a complete list of CSAs refer to the Safety and Security Policies section in the University's master Campus Safety Policies at <https://www.phoenix.edu/content/dam/edu/about/doc/campus-safety-policies.pdf>. A list of Campus Safety Coordinators is available online at: http://www.phoenix.edu/about_us/campus_safety/campus_safety_contact_list.html
 - Hawai'i Main Campus contact is Jade Shiroma, Manager Campus Operations, (808) 674-5683 or Jade.Shiroma@phoenix.edu
- Other contacts include the University's contracted security guards, who are available at the Hawai'i Main Campus' front desk

The SOC is responsible for maintaining copies and tracking all emergency notifications. UOPX executive leadership, Corporate Security, the Crisis Management Team, and the SOC will receive copies of all notifications and alerts. Campus Safety Coordinators also maintain records of all emergency notifications for their location, including tests of the emergency notification system, in the private CSA Notebook.

Campus Alerts

There are circumstances for issuance of a notice that is broader than the minimum Clery Act requirements of a Timely Warning or Emergency Mass Notification (EMN), and UOPX will issue a "Campus Alert" when deemed appropriate. For example, the Security Operations Center (SOC), Corporate Security Department, Clery Compliance Officer, or Campus Safety Coordinator may choose to issue a Campus Alert via phone, email, text, or push notification (via the Phoenix Safe app) to notify the campus community of a situation. The content of a Campus Alert may vary depending on the type of incident reported, circumstance, and the location of the occurrence.

Examples of a Campus Alert include location closings or delayed openings, significant systems/network outages, recurring non-Clery Act crimes, or other important information that must be disseminated to the University or segments of its population quickly. The decision to close or modify the operating hours of a location is at the discretion of the campus director, senior management, or their designee. All closings or delayed opening decisions must be reported to the SOC as soon as possible. The SOC will then send a campus alert to the appropriate recipients according to the impacted location. The content of these notifications will follow templates developed by the SOC. Alerts regarding location closings or delayed openings will only be sent during the hours of 7:00 AM to 9:00 PM local time (campus directors may contact the SOC at any time to schedule these alerts).

Methods for Issuing a Timely Warning and Emergency Notification

The method(s) listed below may be utilized when the University issues a timely warning or emergency notification to the campus community.

Method	Sign Up Instructions
Text messaging, recorded messages to phones, and email notifications	No formal sign-up or opt-in required. Students, faculty, and staff are responsible, though, for ensuring current and accurate contact information is on file with the University.
Push notifications via the Phoenix Safe app	Free to download in the Google Play and Apple Store marketplaces and uses Single Sign On (SSO) (students/faculty use MyPhoenix credentials and staff use network credentials)
News releases, electronic alerts via intranet and internet, posters on entry doors and other accessible areas on campus	No formal sign-up or opt-in required. Visit the UOPX website (phoenix.edu), message boards, or student website (MyPhoenix).
Person-to-person notifications, direct phone calls, phone trees, and other media releases	No formal sign-up or opt-in required. Students, faculty, and staff are responsible, though, for ensuring current and accurate contact information is on file with the University.

Testing & Documentation

UOPX tests its emergency response and evacuation procedures at least once a year. Tests are scheduled, contain drills (e.g., testing our emergency mass notification system or conducting a fire drill), contain exercises (e.g., testing our coordination efforts with first responders), contain follow-through activities (e.g., the collection of feedback from participants), are designed for assessment of emergency plans and capabilities (e.g., a checklist of measurable goals), and are designed for evaluation of emergency plans and capabilities (e.g., uses the assessment to determine whether or not the test met the University's goals). The tests may be announced or unannounced. Also, at various times, Corporate Security will meet to train, test, and evaluate the University's emergency response plan.

Corporate Security maintains a record of these tests and training exercises, including a description of them, the dates and times they were held, and an indication of whether they were announced or unannounced. In connection with at least one such test, UOPX will distribute information reminding students and employees of the University's emergency response and evacuation procedures.

Alcohol and Drug Policy

University of Phoenix (UOPX) abides by federal Drug-Free Workplace Act and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act regulations as well as federal and state alcohol and drug laws. UOPX prohibits the use, sale, possession, or distribution of illicit alcohol and drugs on University Controlled Property² or at a UOPX function and complies with state underage drinking laws. (Note: the legal drinking age in the United States is 21 and over.)

Violations relating to our Student Code of Conduct, Faculty Code of Conduct, related employee alcohol and drug abuse prevention policies, and Code of Ethics are subject to disciplinary sanctions. Consequences UOPX may impose for inappropriate behavior can be severe, up to and including dismissal from the University. If an individual is found violating any alcohol or drug related law while on University Controlled Property or at a UOPX function, UOPX will fully cooperate with federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies, as appropriate.

Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention Program

The University has established specific courses of action regarding alcohol and drug abuse and has steps in place to prevent abuse and generate awareness:

- All new students must acknowledge the Academic Catalog, which includes Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention, the Student Code of Conduct, and other Prohibited Conduct
- Each year, all students, faculty, and staff receive notifications informing them of the location of Campus Safety Policies and the University's Consumer Information Guide

Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention and Assistance

Every local campus offers sexual assault awareness and prevention training annually to students, faculty, and staff. This program discusses how alcohol and drugs can be a contributing factor in sexual assault. Please contact the Campus Safety Coordinator for information on where and when this education event will occur. Students have direct access to this training from the Policy and Compliance link on MyPhoenix. UOPX also provides the following prevention and assistance resources.

Student Resources: UOPX offers substance abuse and various counseling services to all currently enrolled students via the Life Resource Center, directly accessible from the student MyPhoenix website. The Life Resource Center offers no-cost, confidential services available 24/7/365 by calling (844) 492-0546.

Employee Resources: UOPX provides an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) administered by Uprise Health as an employee benefit. All employees have access to the EAP whether they obtain other benefits through UOPX. Information about the EAP program is available at <https://uopx.uprisehealth.com/> (enter access code UOPX) or by calling (800) 395-1616. This benefit provides referral services and treatment sessions as needed. Calls and online inquiries are tracked by category. Employees enrolled in health care plans can obtain added substance abuse benefits, including outpatient and inpatient services, through providers contracted with their health care plan. UOPX also provides a mental wellness benefit, Ginger, for employees and their dependents age 13 and older. Ginger is an emotional support app that supplies emotional support at the right time, including confidential coaching via text-based chats, self-guided activities, and video-based therapy and psychiatry—all from the privacy of a smartphone. Ginger coaches are available 24/7 and work as a team to ensure personalized care when it's needed.

National Resources: We encourage anyone dealing with substance abuse issues (not just our students and employees) to also contact national agencies for guidance and assistance in identifying a counseling, treatment, or rehabilitation program. You are not alone. Support is always available with confidentiality and discretion.

Health Risks of Alcohol and Drugs

The health consequences of drugs and alcohol depend on the frequency, duration, and the intensity of use and can include both physical and psychological effects. Overdose is a risk for all drugs. It can result in coma, convulsions, psychosis, or death. Combinations of certain drugs, such as alcohol and barbiturates, can be lethal. The purity and strength of doses of illegal drugs are uncertain. Continued use of substances can lead to tolerance (requiring more and more of a drug to get the same effect), dependence (physical or psychological need), or withdrawal (painful, difficult, and dangerous symptoms when stopping the use of drugs). Long-term use of drugs can lead to malnutrition, organ damage, and psychological problems. The risk of AIDS and other diseases increases if drugs are injected. The consumption of alcohol or drugs when pregnant may cause abnormalities in babies.

Physical and Psychological Dependence and Effects of Specific Drugs

There is a vast array of health risks associated with chronic alcohol and drug use, including but not limited to: depression; liver and kidney disease; psychosis and impaired thinking; heart attack; seizures; stroke; high blood pressure; violent outbursts; paranoia; anxiety; and increased risk of birth defects and developmental issues during and after pregnancy. For more information about the health risks associated with alcohol and particular types of drugs, please visit <https://nida.nih.gov/research-topics/commonly-used-drugs-charts>.

Standards of Conduct

UOPX prohibits the use, sale, possession, or distribution of illicit alcohol and drugs on University Controlled Property or at a UOPX function and complies with state underage drinking laws. (Note: the legal drinking age in the United States is 21 and over.) Additional standards of conduct for students and faculty are addressed in the Student Code of Conduct and Faculty Code of Conduct, respectively. Also, faculty and staff are subject to the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Prevention and related policies found in the internal Policy Library.

Sanctions UOPX will Impose for Alcohol or Drugs Violations

UOPX will fully cooperate with federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies regarding unlawful possession of drugs and the unlawful consumption of alcohol on University Controlled Property or at a UOPX function. Any member of the campus community found consuming or selling alcohol and illicit drugs on UOPX property is subject to disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal from UOPX.

Policies, Procedures, and Programs Related to Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, and Stalking

UOPX, through its Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Nondiscrimination Policy and consistent with applicable laws, prohibits sex and gender-based discrimination, harassment, and violence, including acts of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, which may also constitute crimes. While UOPX policy may use different standards and definitions than applicable state law, sex- and gender-based incidents often overlap with the crimes of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Acts of violence and harassment based on sex or gender, including sexual orientation, gender identity, and gender expression, may also constitute crimes. Sexual harassment, including dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, are forms of sex discrimination, which are prohibited under Title IX and UOPX policy. UOPX policies and procedures for filing, investigating, and resolving these types of complaints may be found in the Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Nondiscrimination Policy at <https://www.phoenix.edu/content/dam/edu/about/doc/equal-opportunity-harrasment-and-nondiscrimination-policy.pdf>.

Primary Prevention and Awareness Program

UOPX offers programming to identify and prevent dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking each year. UOPX conducts a Primary Prevention and Awareness Program (PPAP) for all incoming students and new employees. The PPAP advises campus community members that the University prohibits the offenses of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Students and employees are also informed of the topics discussed below, including relevant definitions, risk reduction, and bystander intervention.

University Definition of Consent

The University uses the following definition of consent in its Campus Safety Policies for the purpose of determining whether sexual violence (including sexual assault) has occurred:

Consent means the equal approval, given freely, willingly, and knowingly of each participant to desired sexual involvement. Consent is an affirmative, conscious decision – indicated clearly by words or actions – to engage in mutually accepted sexual contact and can be withdrawn at any time. A person forced to engage in sexual contact by force, threat of force, or coercion has not consented to contact. Lack of mutual consent is the crucial factor in any sexual assault. A person's lack of verbal or physical resistance or submission resulting from the use or threat of force does not constitute consent. Consent is not given by a person's manner of dress or past sexual activity. A person's consent to engage in sexual activity with one person does not constitute consent to engage in sexual activity with another. Consent cannot be given if a person is unable to understand the nature of the activity or give knowing consent. Consent cannot be given if a person's ability to resist or consent is substantially impaired because of a mental or physical condition, if there is a significant age or perceived power differential, or due to the circumstances. Examples include, but are not limited to, being:

- Asleep or unconscious,
- Underage,
- Frightened,
- Physically or psychologically pressured or forced,
- Intimidated,
- Substantially impaired because of a psychological health condition,
- Substantially impaired because of voluntary intoxication,
- Substantially impaired because of the deceptive administering of any drug, intoxicant, or controlled substance
- Incapacitated due to the use or influence of alcohol or drugs, or
- Incapacitated due to a mental disability.

Risk Reduction

Risk reduction includes strategies designed to promote safety and decrease incidents of sexual violence and bystander inaction. Students and employees are provided with suggestions that may help them reduce their risk if they find themselves in a potentially dangerous situation, including:

- Know your resources.
 - Determine whom you should contact and where you should go if you or a friend needs help.
 - Notice where emergency phones are located and program the Security Operations Center (SOC) number, (866) 992-3301, into your cell phone.
- Stay alert and aware of your surroundings. Avoid putting headphones in both ears or looking down to focus on your cell phone, especially when walking alone.

- Be careful about posting your location on social media.
- Make others earn your trust and make your limits known ahead of time.
- Consider back-up plans. Think about what you would need to do in various difficult situations such as if your phone dies, if your car runs out of gas, or if you become stranded without any cash or credit cards.
- You can withdraw consent to sexual activity at any time. Do not be afraid to tell a sexual aggressor “NO” clearly and loudly.
- Try to remove yourself from the physical presence of an aggressor. Be as direct as possible about wanting to leave the environment.
- Locate someone nearby and ask them for help.
- Attend events with friends you trust. Watch out for your friends and ask that they watch out for you. Show up together and leave together. If plans change, discuss with the group. Do not leave a friend stranded in an unfamiliar or unsafe situation.

The following technology resources are provided to aid with preventing violence before it happens:

- myPlan App – myPlan is a free app for iPhone and Android created to help people with safety decisions if they, or someone they care about, is experiencing abuse in their intimate relationship. myPlan is for everyone and can help identify, navigate, and provide resources for a range of relationship abuse concerns. For more information, visit http://www.joinonelove.org/my_plan_app.
- The ASPIRE News App – ASPIRE News is a free app for iPhone and Android that allows people to call for help at the touch of a button. The app contains summaries of top stories in world, sports, and entertainment news. Additionally, if someone you know is in an abusive relationship – or if that someone is you – the Help Section of the application contains domestic violence resources. You can triple tap the top of the application frame/title bar at any time in order to alert your trusted contacts that you’re in an emergency situation. For more information, visit <https://www.whengeorgiasmiled.org/aspire-news-app/>.

Information is provided on how to identify the warning signs of abuse and engage in responsible sexual behavior:

- Remember that you owe sexual respect to the other person.
- Don’t make assumptions about the other person’s consent or about how far they are willing to go.
- Remember that consent to one form of sexual activity does not necessarily imply consent to another form of sexual behavior.
- If your partner expresses a withdrawal of consent, stop immediately.
- Clearly communicate your sexual intentions and obtain consent before proceeding.
- “Mixed messages” may be a sign that the other person is uncomfortable with the situation and may not be ready to progress sexually.

- Don't take advantage of someone who is intoxicated or on drugs, even if they knowingly and intentionally put themselves in that state. Further, don't be afraid to step in if you see someone else trying to take advantage of a nearly incapacitated person.
 - Be aware of the signs of incapacitation, such as slurred speech, bloodshot eyes, vomiting, unusual behavior, passing out, staggering, etc.

It is also important to be aware of the warning signs of an abusive person. Some examples include past abuse, threats of violence or abuse, breaking objects, using force during an argument, jealousy, controlling behavior, quick involvement, unrealistic expectations, isolation, blames others for problems, hypersensitivity, cruelty to animals or children, "playful" use of force during sex, and Jekyll-and-Hyde personality.

The following warning signs and red flags of an abusive relationship may be helpful:

- Telling you that you can never do anything right
- Showing extreme jealousy of your friends and time spent away
- Keeping you or discouraging you from seeing friends or family members
- Insulting, demeaning, or shaming you with put-downs
- Controlling every penny spent in the household
- Taking your money or refusing to give you money for necessary expenses
- Looking at you or acting in ways that scare you
- Controlling who you see, where you go, or what you do
- Telling you that you are a bad parent or threatening to harm or take away your children
- Preventing you from working or attending school
- Destroying your property or threatening to hurt or kill your pets
- Intimidating you with guns, knives, or other weapons
- Pressuring you to have sex when you don't want to or do things sexually you're not comfortable with
- Pressuring you to use drugs or alcohol
- Punishing you by withholding affection

Bystander Intervention

Bystander intervention includes safe and positive options that may be carried out by an individual or individuals to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. As a bystander, you can help prevent sexual violence using safe and positive options. According to RAINN, stepping in can make all the difference, but it should never put your own safety at risk. If you find yourself in a situation where someone looks uncomfortable or something does not seem right, consider the three D's of active bystander intervention: 1) Direct, 2) Distract, 3) Delegate.

Direct – Step in and voice your opinion. For example, call out inappropriate behavior or ask if someone is okay.

Distract – Disrupt the interaction by creating a diversion. For example, ask a random question (e.g., Where's the bathroom?) or provide a random comment (e.g., I love the color of your shirt).

Delegate – Recruit others for help with the situation. For example, ask friends for help, inform campus resources, or call the police.

In addition to reporting incidents to the appropriate authorities, below are some ways in which individuals can take safe and positive steps to prevent harm and intervene when there is a risk of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking against another person.

- Look out for those around you.
- Realize that it is important to intervene to help others.
- Treat everyone respectfully. Do not be hostile or an antagonist.
- Create a distraction to interrupt the situation.
- Be confident when intervening.
- Recruit help from others if necessary.
- Be honest and direct.
- Keep yourself safe.
- If things get out of hand, don't hesitate to contact the police.

Ongoing Prevention and Awareness Campaign

UOPX also conducts an Ongoing Prevention and Awareness Campaign (OPAC) aimed at all students and employees. The OPAC campaign strategies and initiatives promote awareness, education, risk reduction, and prevention to reduce the frequency of sex- or gender-based discrimination, harassment, and violence. This campaign covers the same material as provided in the PPAP but is intended to increase the understanding of students and employees on these topics and to improve their skills for addressing the offenses of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.

PPAP and OPAC Programming Methods

Programs and other campaigns offered throughout the year to all students and employees include strong messages regarding not just awareness, but also primary prevention (including bystander intervention), and discuss institutional policies on sex- or gender-based discrimination, harassment, and violence as well as federal and state definitions of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, stalking, and consent in reference to sexual activity. Programs also offer information on risk reduction that strives to empower individuals who experience these incidents, how to recognize warning signs, and how to avoid potential attacks, and do so without biased approaches. Bystander engagement is encouraged through safe and positive intervention techniques and by empowering third-party intervention and prevention such as calling for help, using intervention-based apps, identifying allies, and/or creating distractions.

The PPAP and OPAC are carried out in a variety of ways, using a range of strategies, and, as appropriate, targeting specific audiences throughout the University. Methods include, but are not limited to, presentations, online training modules, distribution of written materials, periodic email blasts, and guest speakers. A summary of this programming is provided below.

- Building Supportive Communities: Title IX and Clery Act Training. Staff and faculty must review and acknowledge this training every other year. This training provides employees with a better understanding of both Title IX and the Clery Act while outlining employee requirements to help keep the UOPX community safe and free from discrimination including sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking.
- Sexual & Interpersonal Violence Prevention and Response Course (SPARC). Online training module training for students in prevention of sexual, interpersonal, and related violence made available in late 2021. A hyperlink to access the training is sent via email.
- Employee Sexual Harassment Awareness Training and Title IX for Higher Education Training must be completed by all new employees upon hire (within 30 days). Once hired, all employees must complete Employee Sexual Harassment Awareness training on a biennial basis.
- The Campus Safety: Awareness, Prevention, and Action online course is always available via MyLearning to staff and must be completed by all new staff upon hire (within 30 days). This course discusses key information on environmental, medical, and criminal risks.
- Sexual Assault Awareness and Prevention Training is offered annually to students, faculty, and staff virtually and at UOPX locations. This training includes:
 - The definitions of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, and consent, in reference to sexual activity
 - The University's stance that it prohibits the crimes of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking
 - Safe and positive options for bystander intervention (e.g., the three D's of active bystander intervention: direct, distract, delegate) and risk reduction
 - Resources for survivors
 - Information on how alcohol and drug use could impact the risk of sexual assault
- UOPX offers information on sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking along with various resources and counseling services to all currently enrolled students via the Life Resource Center (LRC), directly accessible from MyPhoenix. The LRC offers services that are confidential, available 24/7/365, accessible by calling (844) 492-0546, and free to students.
- UOPX provides an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) administered by Uprise Health as an employee benefit. All employees have access to the EAP whether they obtain other benefits through UOPX. Information about the EAP program is available at all times at <https://uopx.uprisehealth.com/> (enter access code UOPX) or by calling (800) 395-1616. This benefit provides referral services and treatment sessions as needed. Calls and online inquiries are tracked by category. Employees enrolled in health care plans can obtain added substance abuse benefits, including outpatient and inpatient services through providers contracted with their health care plan. UOPX also provides a mental wellness benefit, Ginger, for employees and their dependents age 13 and older. Ginger is an emotional support app that supplies emotional support at the right time, including confidential coaching via text-based chats, self-guided activities, and video-based therapy and psychiatry—all from the privacy of a smartphone. Ginger coaches are available 24/7 and work as a team to ensure personalized care when it's needed.

- Denim Day: Held in April in honor of Sexual Violence Awareness Month, UOPX local campuses and learning centers host their own Denim Day events. Students, faculty, and staff are encouraged to wear jeans on this day to support survivors and promote awareness of sexual violence.
- Escalation Workshop: The Title IX office has worked with the One Love Foundation to bring the Escalation Workshop to UOPX. The Escalation Workshop is a film-based discussion that opens people's eyes to the warning signs of relationship abuse. Participants will understand the difference between healthy and unhealthy relationship behaviors and learn ways to safely intervene to help a friend. This is an annual event and is also available upon request.
- Poster and Email Campaign: Posters are periodically placed in public areas of the local campus to alert students and staff for personal safety and theft concerns. Also, emails and newsletter alerts provide awareness of various important topics such as sexual assault, personal safety, theft, incidents, and alcohol and drugs information.
- University community members may contact their designated Campus Safety Coordinator at http://www.phoenix.edu/about_us/campus-safety/campus-safety-contact-list.html to learn about additional educational programs and dates/times they will be offered at their local campus related to these topics.
- Security Escort Service: Security personnel, where available, will provide an onsite safety escort service within the confines of the local campus to/from the parking facility if requested.
- Persona Non Grata – A trespass notice may be issued for individuals who have violated University policy or who have demonstrated that they present a threat to anyone in the University community. Violators can be arrested for trespass.

Other Information Covered by the PPAP and OPAC

The PPAP and OPAC also provides information on possible sanctions and protective/supportive measures that may be imposed following a determination that an offense of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking has occurred, an explanation of the disciplinary procedures that will be followed when one of these offenses is alleged, the rights of the parties in such a proceeding, available resources, and other pertinent information, as described above and below.

Procedures to Follow if You are a Victim of Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking

If you are a victim of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, go to a safe place and call 9-1-1. You may also contact the SOC at (866) 992-3301 or SOC@phoenix.edu, the University's Title IX Coordinator at (602) 557-1823 or TIXC@phoenix.edu, or the Ethics Helpline at (888) 310-9569 or <http://www.UOPXhelpline.com>. Complaints may be submitted to the Ethics Helpline anonymously; however, the Ethics, Compliance, and Data Privacy Department is required to report any instances of alleged sexual misconduct to the Title IX Coordinator.

Victims will be notified in writing of the procedures to follow, including:

1. To whom and how the alleged offense should be reported (contact the Title IX Coordinator or refer to the other resources listed in this report).

2. The importance of preserving evidence that may be necessary to prove the offense in a criminal proceeding or disciplinary action or to obtain a protective order.
3. The victim's options regarding notification to law enforcement, which are: (a) the option to notify either on-campus security personnel or local police, (b) the option to be assisted by Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) in notifying law enforcement if the victim so chooses (the institution is obligated to comply with such a request if it is made), and (c) the option to decline to notify such authorities.
4. Where applicable, the rights of victims and the institution's responsibilities regarding orders of protection, no-contact orders, restraining orders, or similar lawful orders issued by a criminal, civil, or tribal court.

Preservation of Evidence & Forensic Examinations

Victims of physical assault are advised to not remove clothing items worn during or following an assault, as they frequently contain valuable fiber, hair, and fluid evidence. Do not bathe or wash, or otherwise clean the environment in which the assault occurred. You can obtain a forensic examination at Hawai'i Pacific Health's Kapi'olani Medical Center for Women & Children located at 1319 Punahou St., Honolulu, HI 96826, (808) 983-6000.

Completing a forensic examination does not require you to file a police report but having a forensic examination will help preserve evidence in case you decide at a later date to file a police report. Victims are also advised to retain evidence in electronic formats (e.g., text messages, emails, photos, social media posts, screenshots, etc.). Such evidence is valuable in all situations, and it may be the only type of evidence available in instances of stalking.

Campus Security/Law Enforcement & How to Make a Police Report

- Security Operations Center (SOC), 4035 S. Riverpoint Pkwy., Phoenix, AZ 85040, (866) 992-3301
- Honolulu Police Department, 1100 Kamokila Blvd., Kapolei, HI 96707; (808) 723-8400
 - To make a police report, a person should contact the local police agency listed above either by phone or in-person. As much information as possible should be provided, including name, address, and when and what occurred, to the best of the person's knowledge.

Information about Legal Protection Orders

UOPX does not issue orders of protection. Orders of protection, restraining orders, injunctions, or similar lawful orders may be obtained through the local court system and can be enforced by the University's security department. Any student or employee who has a protection order (order of protection) or no contact order should notify the Title IX Coordinator, a CSA and/or Campus Safety Coordinator, and the SOC and provide a copy of the order so that it may be kept on file with the institution and can be enforced, if necessary.

Although UOPX does not issue orders of protection, individuals may request that the University issue an administrative directive for no contact and/or a no trespass notice/persona non grata notice. Upon request, a determination will be made by the University whether to issue an administrative directive for no contact and/or a no trespass notice/persona non grata notice.

For information on how to obtain an order of protection in Hawai'i, which provides protective relief for victims of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, visit https://www.courts.state.hi.us/self-help/protective_orders/district/about_filing_for_your_tro.

Available Victim Services

Victims will be provided written notification about existing counseling, health, mental health, victim advocacy, legal assistance, visa and immigration assistance, student financial aid, and other services available to them, both within the University and in the surrounding community. Those services include:

University Resources

- Student Resources – The University offers various counseling services to all currently enrolled students via the Life Resource Center, directly accessible from the online student MyPhoenix website. The Life Resource Center offers free services that are confidential, available 24/7/365, accessible by calling (844) 492-0546.
- Employee Resources – The University provides an Employee Assistance Program (EAP) administered by Uprise Health as an employee benefit. Ginger coaches are available 24/7 and work as a team to ensure personalized care when it's needed.
- Student Financial Aid – Sometimes a victim of a crime may feel the need to take a leave of absence from school. If a student is considering a leave of absence based on the circumstances of a complaint, they should understand there may be financial aid implications in taking such leave. This should be discussed with financial aid personnel, and the Title IX Coordinator can assist in facilitating this conversation if desired. Additional information on student financial aid is available at <http://www.finaid.org/> and <http://www.fastweb.com/financial-aid>.

Accommodations and Supportive/Protective Measures

The University will provide written notification to victims about options for, and available assistance in, changing academic, living, transportation, and working situations or other supportive/protective measures. If requested, and these accommodations or supportive/protective measures are reasonably available, UOPX is obligated to provide them, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the crime to campus security or local law enforcement.

Requests for supportive/protective measures should be made to the Title IX Coordinator at TIXC@phoenix.edu or (602) 557-1823, and the Title IX Coordinator is responsible for deciding what, if any, supportive/protective measures will be implemented.

When determining the reasonableness of such a request, UOPX may consider, among other factors, the following:

- The specific need expressed by the Complainant
- The age of the individuals involved
- The severity or pervasiveness of the allegations
- Any continuing effects on the Complainant
- Whether the Complainant and alleged perpetrator share the same class or job location
- Whether other judicial measures have been taken to protect the Complainant (e.g., civil protection orders)

UOPX will maintain as private/confidential any accommodations or supportive/protective measures provided to the extent that maintaining such privacy/confidentiality would not impair the University's ability to provide them. However, there may be times when certain information must be disclosed to implement the accommodation or support/protection. For instance, resolution proceedings are private, and all persons present at any time during the resolution process are expected to maintain the privacy of the proceedings in accordance with University policy. While there is an expectation of privacy, the parties involved have discretion to share their own knowledge and evidence with others if they so choose. University decisions to disclose certain information will be made in light of the circumstances, and disclosures of this nature will be limited so that only the information necessary to implement the accommodation or support/protection is provided. In the event a disclosure is necessary, the University will inform the relevant party of that necessity prior to the disclosure, including which information will be shared, with whom it will be shared, and why.

Disciplinary Proceedings

Allegations of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are subject to the University's Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Nondiscrimination Policy and the disciplinary proceedings therein. Students, faculty, and staff are subject to this policy. The University's procedures for disciplinary action in cases of alleged dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking are provided in writing, and acknowledged by students, in the Academic Catalog. Further, rights and options, as well as resources, are provided to complainants and respondents upon disclosure of an allegation. Only incidents falling within the Title IX definition of sexual harassment will be subject to the Title IX Formal Grievance Process. An informal resolution process may only be used if certain criteria are met.

Informal Resolution

Parties are not required to participate in an Informal Resolution process and Informal Resolution may only be used if a formal complaint is filed. Any party participating in Informal Resolution can stop the process at any time and begin or resume the Title IX Formal Grievance Process. Informal Resolution may be used with the voluntary, written consent of both parties:

- When the Respondent accepts responsibility for violating policy and wants to accept a sanction and end the resolution process; or
- When the Title IX Coordinator can resolve the matter by providing supportive/protective measures to remedy the situation.

Prior to implementing Informal Resolution, both parties will be provided with written notice of the reported misconduct and any sanctions or measures that may result from participating in such a process. If Informal Resolution is applicable, the Title IX Coordinator will determine whether all parties and the University are able to agree on responsibility, sanctions, and/or remedies. If so, the Title IX Coordinator accepts the Respondent's admission of responsibility and implements agreed-upon sanctions and/or remedies, in coordination with other appropriate administrator(s), as necessary. The result is not subject to appeal once all parties indicate their written assent to all agreed upon terms of resolution.

Informal Resolution is not available to resolve allegations that an employee sexually harassed a student.

Formal Grievance Process

When appropriate, or upon receipt of a formal complaint, the Title IX Coordinator will initiate a prompt, fair, and impartial process, commencing with an investigation, which may lead to the imposition of sanctions for a Respondent based upon a preponderance of evidence. The complaint resolution procedures are invoked once a report is made to the Title IX Coordinator, Bridget Beville, at (602) 557-1823 or TIXC@phoenix.edu. To file a report online, an electronic form is available at https://www.phoenix.edu/about_us/title-ix.html.

Once a formal complaint of alleged domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking is made, the Title IX Coordinator will promptly provide written notice (i.e., a Notice of Allegations), as soon as practicable, to the parties, including a description of the process to be utilized, the identities of the involved parties (if known), the precise misconduct being alleged, the date and location of the alleged incident(s) (if known), the specific policies implicated, a description of the applicable procedures, a statement that the University presumes the Respondent is not responsible for the reported misconduct unless and until the evidence supports a different determination, a statement that determinations of responsibility are made at the conclusion of the process and that the parties will be given an opportunity to inspect and review all directly related and/or relevant evidence obtained during the review and comment period, and a statement that the parties may have an advisor of their choice (who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney).

During the investigation, both the Complainant and Respondent have an equal opportunity to describe the situation and present witnesses, including both fact and expert witnesses, and other supporting evidence. The investigator(s) will review the statements and evidence presented and may, depending on the circumstances, interview others with relevant knowledge, review documentary materials, and take any other appropriate action to gather and consider information relevant to the complaint. Prior to the conclusion of the investigation, both parties will be provided an opportunity to review the evidence gathered during the investigation that is directly related to the allegations raised in the formal complaint.

Upon completion of the investigation, both parties will be given a copy of an investigation report and a live hearing will be conducted to make a determination as to whether any allegations in the complaint were found to be substantiated by a preponderance of the evidence. During the hearing, each party's advisor will be permitted to ask the other party and any witnesses all relevant questions and follow-up questions including those bearing on credibility. The decision maker(s) will issue a written determination of responsibility, a statement of any disciplinary sanctions and whether any remedies will be provided to the Complainant, and a description of the procedures and permissible grounds for appeal. The parties will be notified simultaneously of this determination in writing within three (3) days of it being made. The institution strives to complete investigations of this nature within ninety (90) calendar days.

Both parties have an equal opportunity to appeal the determination by filing a written appeal with the Title IX Coordinator within ten (10) days of the delivery of the Notice of Outcome. The non-appealing party will be notified of the appeal and permitted to submit a written statement in response. A three-member Appeal Panel will resolve the appeal within three (3) business days of receiving all relevant documentation. All decisions are by majority vote and apply the preponderance of the evidence standard.

Rights of the Parties in an Institutional Proceeding

1. A prompt, fair and impartial process from the initial investigation to the final result.
 - A prompt, fair and impartial process is one that is:
 - Completed within reasonably prompt timeframes designated by the institution's policy, including a process that allows for the extension of timeframes for good cause, with written notice to the accuser and the accused of the delay and the reason for the delay.
 - Conducted in a manner that:
 - Is consistent with the institution's policies and transparent to the accuser and the accused.
 - Includes timely notice of meetings at which the accuser or accused, or both, may be present; and
 - Provides timely access to the accuser, the accused and appropriate officials to any information that will be used during the informal and formal disciplinary meetings and hearings.
 - Conducted by officials who do not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against the accuser or the accused.
2. Proceedings conducted by officials who, at a minimum, receive annual training on the issues related to dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking and on how to conduct an investigation and hearing process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability.

- Such training addresses topics such as the definition of sexual harassment; the scope of the University's education programs and activities; how to conduct investigations, hearings, and appeals and informal resolutions (as applicable); relevant evidence and how it should be used during a proceeding; proper techniques for questioning witnesses; basic procedural rules for conducting a proceeding; and avoiding actual and perceived conflicts of interest. Relevant evidence and how it should be used during a proceeding, proper techniques for questioning witnesses, basic procedural rules for conducting a proceeding, and avoiding actual and perceived conflicts of interest. As mandated by Title IX, all training completed by Title IX Coordinators, Investigators, Decision-makers, Advisors, and the Appeal Panel is posted at https://www.phoenix.edu/about_us/title-ix.html.
- 3. The same opportunities to have others present during any institutional disciplinary proceeding, including the opportunity to be accompanied to any related meeting or proceeding by the advisor of their choice. The institution may not limit the choice of advisor but may establish limits regarding the extent to which that advisor may participate in the proceeding, as long as those limits apply equally to both parties.
- 4. Have the outcome determined using the preponderance of the evidence standard.
- 5. Simultaneous, written notification of the results of the proceeding, any procedures for either party to appeal the result, any change to the result, and when the result becomes final. For this purpose, "result" means "any initial, interim and final decision by an official or entity authorized to resolve disciplinary matters" and must include the rationale for reaching the result and any sanctions imposed.
- 6. Protection against retaliation.

Possible Sanctions or Supportive/Protective Measures UOPX may Impose for Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking

Only those with a need to know the identity for purposes of investigating the crime, assisting the victim, or disciplining the perpetrator will know the victim's identity.

Victims to Receive Written Notification of Rights

When a student or employee reports to the University that they have been a victim of dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, the University will provide the student or employee a written explanation of their rights and options and/or applicable resources as described in the paragraphs above.

Sex Offender Registration Program

The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act of 2000 provides minimum national standards for state sex offender registration and community notification programs and requires institutions of higher education to advise members of the campus community where they can obtain information provided by the state concerning registered sex offenders. It also requires sex offenders to notify the state of each institution of higher education in the state at which they are employed or enrolled or carrying on a vocation. The state is then required to notify the University of any such information it receives. Anyone interested in determining whether such persons are on this campus may do so by contacting the Department of the Attorney General at the Hawai'i Criminal Justice Data Center via email at <https://ag.hawaii.gov/hcjdc/contact-hcjdc/>, telephone at (808) 587-3350, or by mail to 465 South King St., Room 102, Honolulu, HI 96813. Unfounded Crimes Provided by Law Enforcement Agencies

Included in this section are the total number of crime reports for all Clery-reportable crimes that were "unfounded" and subsequently withheld from the University's crime statistics during each of the three most recent calendar years. The University may withhold, or subsequently remove, a reported crime from its crime statistics in the rare situation where sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel have fully investigated the reported crime and based on the results of this full investigation and evidence, have made a formal determination that the crime report is false or baseless and therefore "unfounded." Only sworn or commissioned law enforcement personnel may "unfound" a crime report.

2021: 0 unfounded crimes.

2020: 0 unfounded crimes.

Data from Law Enforcement Agencies

The University was provided with some crime data from law enforcement agencies in 2020, 2021, and 2022 for which it cannot be determined whether any of the statistics apply to or include the University's Clery geography.
