Harris Teeter and University of Phoenix FAQ

How much do Harris Teeter associates save?
All Harris Teeter associates are eligible to save 5% on the cost of tuition for any associate’s, bachelor’s, master’s and doctoral degrees, certificates and individual courses at University of Phoenix. Additionally, all fees associated with PLA will be waived for Harris Teeter associates.

When can Harris Teeter Associates start taking advantage of the tuition savings?
Current University of Phoenix students should identify themselves as Harris Teeter associates through the University of Phoenix eCampus site to receive the tuition reduction on their next course. To identify themselves via eCampus, students will need to log in, select the “Account” tab, and click on the “Employer/Association Partnership Program” link. They should then select Harris Teeter and answer all pertinent questions.

Can associates receive any college credit for prior training?
You may be able to turn prior professional development training or certificates into college credit. Through Prior Learning Assessment (PLA), students may be eligible to receive up to 15 credits toward an associate’s degree and up to 30 credits toward a bachelor’s degree. The PLA process applies only to associate’s or bachelor’s degree candidates, and awarded credits are limited to elective or general education requirements. Please visit phoenix.edu/harristeeter to access the Credit Recommendation Guide and see which courses may qualify for college credit. Learn more about PLA by calling 800.224.0690. All fees associated with PLA will be waived for Harris Teeter associates.

In addition to online courses, does University of Phoenix also offer campus-based courses?
Yes. We offer a wide variety of online and campus-based programs although program availability and format vary by location. Please check with a University Enrollment Advisor. Students can visit phoenix.edu/harristeeter to browse our degree programs and search online for local campus programs.

Is University of Phoenix accredited?
Yes. University of Phoenix is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and is a member of the North Central Association (ncahlc.org). For information about University of Phoenix accreditations and licensures, please visit phoenix.edu/about_us/accreditation.html.

How long will it take to complete a degree?
Students can complete their undergraduate degree in approximately four years or less, depending on the number of previously earned and applicable credits. Students can generally earn their graduate degree within 18-24 months. Your Enrollment Advisor will be able to offer a more accurate evaluation of the time needed to complete a degree.

How often are courses offered?
When do classes start? University of Phoenix offers continuing enrollment, meaning students can enroll year-round and that each week many courses begin. Contact University of Phoenix about specific dates available for new enrollments.

Where can employees get answers to other detailed questions?
Harris Teeter associates who would like additional information should visit phoenix.edu/harristeeter or call 800.616.1817.