Bachelor of Science in Health Administration/Long-Term Care (BSHA/LTC) Program Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will apply concepts of long-term care administration within the industry.
2. Students will analyze health and wellness concepts to address the needs of various LTC populations.
3. Students will integrate ethical principles into all aspects of the LTC industry.
4. Students will explain products and services to address the needs of various LTC populations.