Master of Health Administration/Gerontology (MHA/GER) Program Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to create a strategic plan for a health care organization.
2. Students will be able to analyze the impact of health care policy on processes, products and services in the health care industry.
3. Students will be able to evaluate informational technology and security management needs of health care.
4. Students will be able to evaluate evidence-based data to support quality and performance measures within the health care industry.
5. Students will be able to demonstrate management of organizational finances within the economic environment of various health care industries.
6. Students will be able to analyze the impact of various management and leadership theories within health care organizations and delivery systems.
7. Students will be able to analyze foundational concepts of gerontology to support the health of older adults.
8. Students will be able to evaluate resources available to older adults to support the aging process.
9. Students will be able to analyze business needs to promote gerontology services and products.