Prepare for a key project management certification.

Based on A Guide to the Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMBOK® Edition) – Fifth Edition, this course prepares students for the Project Management Professional (PMP)® certification examination using a series of study guides, practical reviews and practice examinations. Students will focus on key concepts, formulas and principles for passing the PMP examination. This course provides 35 professional development hours in five 7-hour workshops. The tuition for this course is $1,400.

Our course provides skills for the following occupations:

- Project Manager
- Project Manager Specialist
- Project Team Leader
- Senior Project Manager
- Program Manager
- Portfolio Manager
- Other jobs that require program management skills.

Learn tangible skills:

- Project planning and development
- Analytics
- Budgeting
- Risk analysis
- Scheduling
- Defining scope
Benefits of being a Phoenix:

- Learn from faculty with over 22 years experience.
- Connect with over 890,000 alumni.
- Take classes online, on campus, or both.
- Gain the industry skills and knowledge you need to be successful.
- Tap into the Phoenix Career Guidance System™, a personal career GPS designed to help make informed career decisions.
- Access to locations nationwide that offer resources including academic assistance and workshops.
- Learn from a program that is built for adult learners and teaches skills that are applicable to the job you want.

Industry-recognized certifications:

- Aligns with PMI® Project Management Professional Certification

Project Management Professional Test-prep (Noncredit)
35 professional development units are awarded upon completion.

Required Course:

PMPTP/2500
Project Management Professional Test-prep

Related offerings:

Project Management Certificate Program (Noncredit)
The program covers the five process groups of project management: initiating, planning, executing, monitoring and controlling, and closing. Courses are aligned to the standards set in A Guide to the Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMBOK® Guide), Fifth Edition. Students will complete 40 instructional hours and earn 40 PDUs from University of Phoenix.

PMPDU/2000
Project Management Fundamentals (Noncredit)
The principles in the course align to the standards in A Guide to the Project Management Body of Knowledge PMBOK® Guide - Fifth Edition, to help prepare students for the Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM)® certification exam and provides 24 PDUs.