Bachelor of Science in Psychology (BSP) Program
Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to analyze psychological phenomena based on psychological theories, concepts and research.
2. Students will be able to analyze the historical evolution of the science of psychology.
3. Students will be able to evaluate the validity of conclusions derived from existing psychological research.
4. Students will be able to apply research methods to conduct basic psychological research studies.
5. Students will be able to apply ethical principles in all aspects of the science and practice of psychology.
6. Students will be able to apply sociocultural and international awareness to all aspects of the science and practice of psychology.
7. Students will be able to apply psychological principles to address personal, social and organizational issues.
8. Students will be able to apply strategies to self-management and self-improvement.
9. Students will be able to apply psychological knowledge, skills and values to meet professional and personal goals and societal needs in a variety of settings.