

Intellectual Property Licensing Requests

University of Phoenix, Inc. ("UOPX") respects the intellectual property rights of others, and it seriously considers requests for licensing of third-party intellectual property. Any requests for licensing of intellectual property by a third party should be made directly to UOPX IP Counsel. Licensing requests should be sent in writing to:

University of Phoenix Legal Department
Intellectual Property Counsel
University of Phoenix, Inc.
4025 S. Riverpoint Parkway, Mail Stop: CF-K612
Phoenix, AZ 85040

Licensing requests to UOPX should include:

- Submitter's name, company or institution name, email, and phone number
- Non-confidential and non-proprietary description of the opportunity

By submitting a licensing request, the submitter acknowledges that:

- All licensing requests, and associated materials, will be treated as non-confidential unless the disclosure is covered by a separate, formal, written confidentiality agreement signed by UOPX prior to the time the information is disclosed to UOPX.
- The licensing request and materials will not be received or treated by UOPX in confidence, nor will its consideration by UOPX give rise to any confidential relationship between parties. UOPX may disclose the contents of the licensing request for any purpose to employees, consultants, third parties or any other persons it deems necessary.
- UOPX will give the licensing request such consideration, if any, as UOPX, in its sole and absolute discretion, believes that it merits. UOPX may request additional information from the Submitter before determining the merits of the license request
- UOPX shall not be obligated to provide the submitter with any information whatsoever concerning the nature, extent, or results of UOPX's evaluation of the licensing request.
- For the purpose of willful infringement or the inducement of infringement, UOPX's receipt of licensing request and related materials shall not constitute notice or knowledge of any patent or claim of patent infringement to UOPX.
- In considering the license request, UOPX will be under no obligation of any kind unless it enters into a formal written agreement signed by all parties involved.
