Bachelor of Science in Environmental Science (BSEVS) Program Student Learning Outcomes

1. Develop knowledge that is foundational to the physical and biological sciences
2. Evaluate environmental phenomena using social, environmental, and financial principles
3. Construct scientific arguments to accurately assess environmental risk
4. Utilize environmental regulation to examine human activity
5. Apply environmental policy in the management of the environment