

Bachelor of Science in Accounting (BSACC) Program Student Learning Outcomes

1. Integrate generally accepted accounting principles throughout the accounting lifecycle
2. Evaluate accounting and financial information, including financial statements, to make business decisions
3. Integrate ethical, legal and accounting standards and assumptions into financial practices
4. Integrate business practices into accounting and financial operations