Master of Health Administration
Concentration in Health Care Informatics (MHA-I) Student Learning Outcomes

- Learners will analyze informatics in health administration contexts to inform strategic data sourcing and decision-making.

- Learners will distinguish the ways in which data are utilized across diverse health information systems.

- Learners will critique health information system implementation and interaction across the health sector.