

Doctor of Health Administration (DHA) Student Learning Outcomes

- Analyze components, sub-systems, systems, and interfaces to improve health care systems.
- Appraise the influence of health finance and economics, regulations, and contemporary issues on the sustainability of health care and industry related organizations.
- Apply leadership theories, models, and principles to guide complex health care organizations through strategic planning, innovative change, and quality assurance.
- Evaluate the legislative process of policy decision-making at the international, national, state, and local levels to develop, implement, and monitor policy to enhance the delivery of health care services.
- Design and conduct valid and ethical research that informs evidence-based decision-making and contributes to the body of knowledge in health care administration.