

Doctor of Education Leadership - Higher Education Administration (EDD-HEA) Student Learning Outcomes

- Analyze higher education systems in order to develop innovative approaches for improving access and excellence in higher education.
- Apply leadership, organizational and human development theories to the leadership of diverse communities of internal constituent groups and external stakeholders.
- Integrate research to guide institutions in strategic planning, fiscal oversight, quality review and outcomes assessment.
- Evaluate legal and regulatory mandates, models of higher education governance, institutional structure, and operations to ensure institutional integrity.