

Master of Science in Nursing Concentration in Nurse Education (MSN)

Program Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will be able to apply organizational and systems leadership concepts to the management of human, fiscal, and physical healthcare resources for diverse populations in a variety of settings.
2. Students will be able to evaluate processes, systems, and utilize current technology to support continuous quality improvement and improve patient outcomes across the care continuum in a variety of settings.
3. Students will be able to synthesize scholarship from a variety of sources and translate to promote implementation of evidence-based practice.
4. Students will be able to evaluate healthcare policy, regulatory, legal, economic, and sociocultural environments to advocate for patients and effect change in the healthcare system based on their role.
5. Students will be able to design and deliver evidenced-based clinical prevention and population care within an interdisciplinary team to serve diverse populations in a variety of local, national, and international settings.
6. Students will be able to justify teaching methodologies which support adult learning.
7. Students will be able to design engaging learning activities.
8. Students will be able to plan curriculum to meet the current regulatory requirements, accreditation standards, and industry standards.
9. Students will be able to design tools that evaluate formative and summative student learning.