

Master of Health Administration (MHA) Program Student Learning Outcomes

1. Evaluate industry and organizational dynamics in the healthcare environment.
2. Generate core business strategies based on innovative concepts developed in the program.
3. Construct strategic relationships with diverse stakeholders across the health sector to achieve business objectives with a current or desired employer.
4. Develop a leadership identity that reflects traits required in complex healthcare environments.
5. Produce a personal legacy that fosters investment in people and the community to drive the future of health care.
6. Foster the ability to create and execute operational improvement plans that address transformation, communication, and execution elements within the sector.