

Master of Management (MM) Program Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will evaluate the implications of change and its impact on diverse stakeholders within the organization.
2. Students will apply key skills to plan, allocate and manage human and material resources within a global environment.
3. Students will apply key skills to function as consultants and change agents to advance organizational goals.
4. Students will apply knowledge and application of appropriate business management theories, models and tools for solving complex global business problems.