Master of Science in Counseling/Clinical Mental Health Counseling (MSC/CCMH) Program Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will develop a professional identity as an advocate and steward for the counseling profession.

2. Social and Cultural Diversity: Students will integrate social and cultural diversity competencies into their practice as a professional counselor.

3. Human and Growth Development: Students will integrate human growth and development theories and principles into their counseling practices.

4. Career Development: Students will integrate career development theories and principles into their counseling practices.

5. Counseling and Helping Relationships: Students will integrate counseling theories, models, and techniques into their counseling practices.

6. Group Counseling and Group Work: Students will integrate group counseling theories and practices into their counseling practices.

7. Assessment and Testing: Students will execute counseling assessment and testing processes and procedures to guide their practice as a clinical mental health counselor.

8. Research and Program Evaluation: Students will evaluate research and programs to inform counseling practice