

Program Student Learning Outcome Assessment Report

College/School: School of Advanced Studies

Program:* Doctor of Management in Organizational Leadership

Campus:* National

Date Range (Start):* 10/01/2014

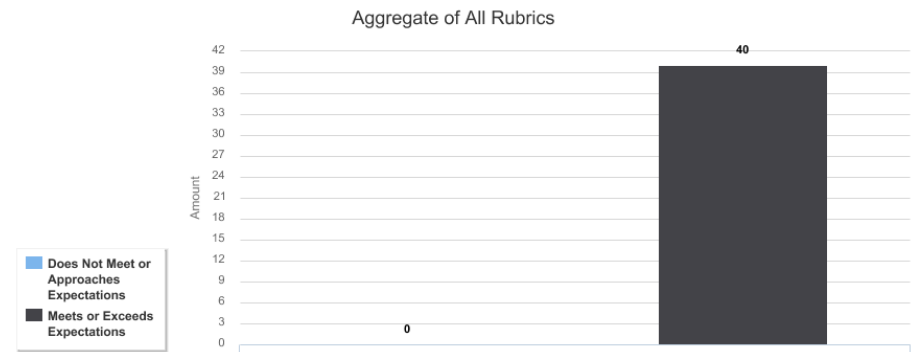

Date Range (End):* 04/30/2015

DM SLO 1: Evaluate and apply theories of management, organization design and leadership skills to solve challenging business problems and achieve desired organizational results.

Faculty determined that the criterion for success for this PSLO is 75% of students meet or exceed expectations. Data indicates that 100% of students met or exceeded expectations, therefore the criterion for success was met.

Overview of Rubrics Aligned to This PSLO

Rubric	Does Not Meet Expectations	Approaches Expectations	Meets Expectations	Exceeds Expectations
AGGREGATE OF PSLO-ALIGNED RUBRICS	0% (0)	0% (0)	60% (24)	40% (16)
ORG/716 - Week 3 Organizational Theories Matrix	0% (0)	0% (0)	60% (24)	40% (16)

DM SLO 2: Apply critical- and creative-thinking skills to respond to emergent managerial and leadership problems.

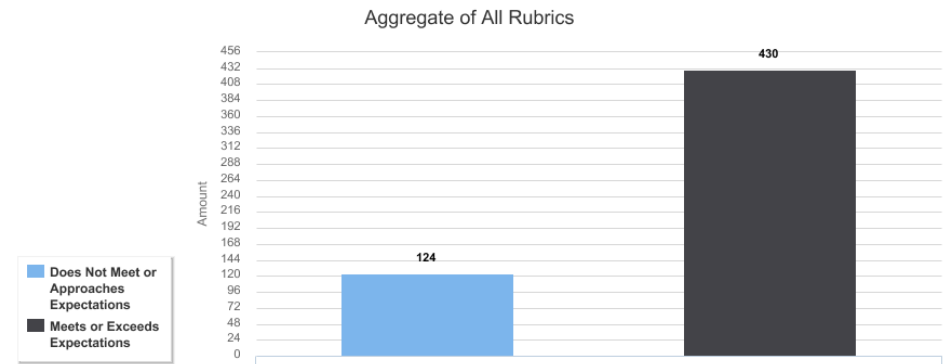

There is no data to display for the selected parameters.

DM SLO 3: Create, integrate and evaluate principles of organization theory and knowledge management to develop sustainable systems, structures and processes.

Faculty determined that the criteria for success for this PSLO is 75% of students meet or exceed expectations. Data indicates that 77% of students met or exceeded expectations, therefore the criterion for success was met.

Overview of Rubrics Aligned to This PSLO

Rubric	Does Not Meet Expectations	Approaches Expectations	Meets Expectations	Exceeds Expectations
AGGREGATE OF PSLO-ALIGNED RUBRICS	16% (90)	6% (34)	41% (228)	36% (202)
ORG/716 - Week 4 Systems Thinking Paradigm Table	20% (78)	5% (18)	47% (182)	28% (106)
ORG/727 - Week 6 Intervention Matrix	7% (12)	9% (16)	27% (46)	56% (96)

DM SLO 4: Apply appropriate research methods and designs to contribute original and scholarly work with practical relevance in solving complex organizational issues.
There is no data to display for the selected parameters.

DM SLO 5: Apply a range of ethical models of managerial decision-making to demonstrate social responsibility within their organization, industry and community.
There is no data to display for the selected parameters.