

We Rise Together Scholarship

University of Phoenix is a leader in career-relevant education for working adults. As one of the largest private universities in North America, we take our responsibility to our students and society very seriously, shaping programs that equip our graduates with the tools they need to positively impact their lives, their families' lives, their communities, and the world they live in.

Because University of Phoenix believes we don't rise alone, but together, we are launching the WE RISE TOGETHER scholarship program, in memory of BSN alumna Lorraine Beck, who was determined to complete her degree and refused to let any obstacle stand in her way, not even cancer. Shortly after Lorraine completed her Bachelor of Science in Nursing, she passed away, but her fighting spirit influenced her best friend, Susan Hagen to go after her degree as well. Lorraine inspired Susan to complete her BSN, and her memory will continue to make an influence through the We Rise Together scholarship program, which will offer two (2) full-tuition scholarships. Each scholarship will allow a prospective student the opportunity to complete either an RN to Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) or Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) degree program at University of Phoenix.
