

Bachelor of Science in Management (BSM) Program Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will identify management principles necessary for organizational effectiveness.
2. Students will evaluate the effectiveness of processes used to achieve organizational goals.
3. Students will apply key problem-solving strategies in the analysis and recommendation of business decisions.
4. Students will analyze the implications of diversity in an organization.