

Post Master's Certificate in Business Administration (CERT/D-BA) Program Student Learning Outcomes

1. Students will learn to integrate leadership principles, theories, and practice to promote organizational entrepreneurship, strategic planning, and governance in a global business environment.
2. Students will learn to create strategic organizational and marketing models that optimize organization leadership, policies, and resources in a diverse environment.