

Master of Health Administration Concentration in Health Care Informatics (MHA-I) Student Learning Outcomes

- Learners will analyze informatics in health administration contexts to inform strategic data sourcing and decision-making.
- Learners will distinguish the ways in which data are utilized across diverse health information systems.
- Learners will critique health information system implementation and interaction across the health sector.