

WE RISE

Join the University of Phoenix for a Virtual webinar on building your professional profile.

Brought to you by Heather Livingston, nationally certified career counselor.

Heather has over 14 years of counseling experience, focusing the last 8+ years specifically on Career Counseling. Her ability to establish rapport and connect with clients has been instrumental in success with job search strategies for new graduates, career transitions, and outplacement. Heather pays extra attention to detail and organization, focusing on individual and customized plans throughout the career decision-making process.
