– Eta Theta Chapter's GPA Requirements

The Alpha Phi Sigma website states that students need to have a 3.2 GPA; however, Eta Theta requirements are higher. This difference in GPA requirements can be confusing to many students. To become a member of Eta Theta, students must have completed one-third of their total hours required for graduation at their institution. Students must be recommended to the National Honor Society by the Eta Theta chapter advisor.

– Ineligible Students

Please note that students who are currently on academic probation or who have had a documented University of Phoenix Code of Conduct violation are not eligible for membership in Eta Theta.

Current Dues/Fees:

Student lifetime (Eta Theta chapter) membership dues = $80 ($70 membership + $10 S&H) or $140 (membership, stole, medallion, and S&H)

Faculty lifetime (Eta Theta chapter) membership dues = $75

50.5% of dues remain with the local chapter.

49.5% are remitted to the parent organization.

Dues are used for shipping/mailling, administrative items for the management of the chapter and for induction ceremonies at campuses.

EPT is the leading international honor society for technology. Epsilon Pi Tau recognizes academic excellence of students in fields devoted to the study of technology and the preparation of practitioners for the technology professions. Epsilon Pi Tau also extends the honor of membership and advancement activities to outstanding practitioners in the technology professions, scholars with exemplary research interests in technology in society and/or persons who have significantly supported or advanced technology professions. All prospective members from these groups must meet Epsilon Pi Tau professional and leadership performance criteria.

– Meaning of EPT Symbols

- The name, Epsilon Pi Tau, is derived from the initial letters of the Greek names of the three precepts on which the society was founded. These are Technological Capability and Skill, or TEXNIKH; Social and Professional Proficiency, or PRAGMATEIA; and Research and its Applications and Products, or EXETASIS.
- The emblem of Epsilon Pi Tau is an equilateral triangle. The sides of the triangle are bars inscribed with the Greek names of the three precepts, TEXNIKH, PRAGMATEIA and EXETASIS. The bars are joined at the apexes of the triangle by pins. At the head of each of the three pins is one of the three Greek letter initials of each precept name.

– The EPT Colors:

- Blue signifies TEXNIKH, or technological capability and skill.
- White is for PRAGMATEIA, or social and professional proficiency.
