

Approx. program length:

9 months

Credits:

18

Cost per credit:

$540

Tuition Guarantee

Format:

Online

Shape the next wave of healthcare professionals

Gain the skills you need to pursue a role in nursing education through a Post Master's Nursing Educators Certificate. Upon completion of this certificate, nurses with graduate degrees (or higher) and designated teaching experience will be educationally prepared to sit for the National League of Nursing (NLN) Certified Nurse Educator (CNE) exam.

In this certificate program, you'll prepare to:

- Take on leadership and faculty roles in a variety of educational settings
- Evaluate and design curriculum
- Facilitate engaged learning
- Translate current scholarship and research to promote evidence-based practice
- Design and deliver evidence-based clinical prevention and population care

You can complete your certificate online in as little as 9 months by taking just one 6-week course at a time, so you can balance work and life on the path to your graduate certificate.

What sets us apart?

When you choose our Post Master's Nursing Educators Certificate, you can:

Lock in your tuition

We promise you'll keep the same affordable tuition until you graduate from your program. Count on tuition to be as dependable as your education.

Learn on your schedule

Designed to fit into the lives of busy working adults, our Post Master's Nursing Educators Certificate can be completed in short, manageable, 6-week courses.

Prepare for certification

Upon completion of this certificate, eligible nurses will be prepared to sit for the National League of Nursing (NLN) Certified Nurse Educator (CNE) exam.

Networking opportunities

Access powerful networking tools through our PhoenixLink™ career services platform. Take advantage of personal career coaching. Search and apply for jobs, or make your resumé visible to employers. And connect with employers and alumni through career fairs and mixers. It's all about connections. And we help you make them.

The goal of accreditation is to ensure that education provided by institutions of higher education meets acceptable levels of quality. Accreditation is your assurance the University meets quality standards.

Institutional accreditation

Regional accreditation is an institution-level accreditation status granted by one of six U.S. regional accrediting bodies. Accreditation by more than one regional accrediting body is not permitted by the U.S. Department of Education.

University of Phoenix is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLC), hlcommission.org. Since 1978, University of Phoenix has been continually accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and its predecessor.

Course length:

6 weeks

Total credits required:

18

Max. number of transfer credits:

3

Requirements and prerequisites

You'll need 18 credits to complete this certificate program. Credits can be earned through required courses and may vary based on previous experience, training or transferable credits.

Curriculum alignment

This is just one more way a University of Phoenix® Nursing Educators certificate can help you develop the skills you'll need in the world of nursing.

Core courses

- NSG517ED: Practicum II
- NSG516ED: Practicum I
- NSG533: Educational Assessment And Evaluation
- NSG532: Innovative Curriculum Design
- NSG534: Facilitating Engaged Learning
- NSG531: Program And Course Development